

In-School's Privacy Policy

This privacy policy applies, including but not limited to the DobotLab & DobotLink software (hereby referred to as "Software") used in educational facilities including schools for computers/mobile devices that was created by Dobot (hereby referred to as "Service Provider") as a free service and is intended for use "AS IS".

Information Collection and Use

The Software collects no personally identifiable information when you download and use it, nor does it gather precise information about the location of your computer/mobile device.

The Software does not collect any student information including, but not limited to:

- a. The student's name, as well as their indirect identifiers, such as the student's date of birth, place of birth, and Mother's Family Name
- b. The name of the student's parent or other family members
- c. The address of the student or student's family
- d. A personal identifier, such as the student's social security number, student number, or biometric record
- e. Other information that, alone or in combination, is linkable to a specific student that would allow a reasonable person in the school community, who does not have personal knowledge of the relevant circumstances, to identify the student with reasonable certainty or
- f. Information requested by a person who the educational agency or institution reasonably believes, knows the identity of the student to whom the education record relates.

Children's Use of Software

The Service Provider does not use the Software to knowingly solicit data from or market to children under the age of eighteen nor will it be sold for use of marketing purposes.

The Software does not address anyone under the age of eighteen specifically. The Service Provider does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from persons under eighteen years of age.
